“ Rosemary was my sister-in-law for 49 years and we were very close during our lifetime together. She was born deaf but she had an amazing ability to hear and speak in so many other ways. Through her instincts and intelligence Rosemary was able to read one's emotions, anticipate their needs and very often recognize if a person was of good or maybe not so good character. She also had the ability to tell you what she thought of you if she was angry or upset. You may not be able to understand it all because the sign language would be so fast you couldn't keep up and that was probably a good thing because, you may have gotten your feelings hurt! She was so funny when she was angry.

Rosemary had to face many difficulties during her life such as medical issues, the loss of her eyesight, and the worst for her the deaths of her parents and her brother. Her inner strength always pulled her through.

There was one major thing about Rosemary that was outstanding. When she loved you she loved you fiercely and forever. No matter what.

Rosie you were loved fiercely and will be missed. Becky
