“ Jo, and Holly, Words do not express the hurt I know you all feel. We know she is in better place and rejoicing with our loved ones. May each day you recall the special memories. My favorite memory as kids was us coming in on vacation. Grandmas Short always had food on the table and our parents would play Rook at kitchen table. The kids either watched tv downstairs or we played out side or walked the block. I recall Sandy tell Beth and I the ghost house was around the big block. Fun times. Loved having cousins Love you both.
