“ It’s been a long time, but Sarah lived with us when she taught school at Rising Fawn. When she married she moved out. I always thought she & her husband lived in Chattanooga. Just happened to read her obituary in the Mountain Valley News. Thanks for being able to read a much more descriptive obituary here. I had known her & her family all my life, but lost touch after we moved back to her hometown after leaving Rising Fawn. She was ALWAYS a great person & dear friend. You have my deepest sympathy. “ We will miss you "Grandma" Sarah..thank you for being the best neighbor ever and for being my little ones adopted grandma here in GA. You have blessed our lives by your presence, love, and friendship since we first moved here. Thank you for allowing us to sit and chat and get hugs..we will miss seeing you daily and waving hello. Sending all our love to you in Heaven and to your family here on earth. Love, The Brooks family (Jerry, Bridget, Shiloh, and Jayce).

“ What a woman! She knew her job and did it well. When I was teaching, she helped me so many times with loans.
