

Savannah Mae Holland

May 17, 1922 - July 1, 2017

Savannah Mae Holland was reunited with her loved ones in heaven on Saturday afternoon, July 1st, 2017. She had recently celebrated her 95th birthday on May 17th.

Better known as "Mamaw", Savannah was a strong, independent & loving woman. She was an avid gardener & the best cook in the world. She was known far & wide for her home-made chicken-n-dumplings, pinto beans & cornbread, peach cobblers and so much more. There was always a welcoming seat at her table for all.

Savannah was loved by everyone who knew her. She was a beloved wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother & great-grandmother. She leaves us all with a lifetime full of happy memories.

Savannah was preceded in death by her devoted husband of 68 years, Lester Holland; her parents Jim & Della Stevens; sisters Ruby & Ollie; and brothers Jay, Henry, Jim, Ben, Vernon & Marshall Stevens.

She is survived by son and daughter-in-law Charles & Shirley Holland; daughter and son-in-law Wanda & Clyde Buck; sisters Ovella Brown & Lottie Henegar; brothers Doyle & Hoyle Stevens; grandchildren Ken Holland & wife Sandy, Angela Holland, Diana Holland, Britni Holland, Cara Holland, Charlie Holland, Michele Buck-Thomas & husband Benjy, Emily Buck-Butler & husband Ray, Jennifer Buck Wallace & husband Billy, Stephanie Buck-Ison & husband Matt, Jason Buck & wife Emily-Anne; 20 cherished great-grandchildren: Matthew, John Ryan & Kelsey Holland, Zane & Savana Joyeuse; Benjamin, Landry & Kayla Thomas; Jake, Landon, Brady, Madison, Colton & Caylee Butler; Buck Wallace; Liam, Finn & Oliver Ison; and Sullivan & Harrison Buck.

A special thanks to Corrie, Beverly, Helen and Angelica at L & L Sweet Home Care for the special love and care you gave Mamaw throughout the last year and a half -- you were a true blessing

Funeral services will be held on Monday, July 10, 2017 in the chapel of Ryan Funeral Home with Rev. Jerry Henegar officiating. Interment will follow at Poplar Springs Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM EST on Monday at the Ryan Funeral Home.
