“ It’s hard to put into a few words what a friendship of 50 years shared. The most beautiful soul I could shop till I dropped with and confide our deepest life’s problems and most precious memories. Sheila was truly the only one I have always been able to feel that close to. She was and will always be my dearest friend. Sheila was always talking about and so proud of her son, Scott. She definitely done a beautiful job as a mother because I cannot say enough about Scott and Tonya. Thank you both for taking such good care of my friend. She was surely blessed with you both. Heaven sure got an angel! Miss you my friend.

“ Scott, the last time I spoke with your mother, she called me just to chat. She loved you dearly. I hate that her call indicated Alzheimer's had already begun to take her from you all those years ago. God bless you.
