“ I met Sonya when she walked into my classroom to obtain her GED, She was sure she would never pass math. I proved her wrong. I got to watch her walk across the stage in cap n gown. We became best friends after that. We would go adventuring together. We shared hopes, dreams and fears. She was my go to when I needed to vent as I was her go to. I will miss being called Mel B. I know I have an angel watching over me,

*Love you
Melissa*

“ Sonya and I went to school years ago. We were really good friends. Her mom and dad always treated me like I was a part of the family. I have not talked to her in years but this breaks my heart to hear of her passing. I am praying for all of the family. Love Porkchop

“ Sonya was one of the kindest, sweetest, loving and caring person that I had the pleasure of knowing for a very long time. Me and her got matching tattoos along time ago to express our friendship for one another. We did a lot of things together and always had a fun time doing them along with making such sweet memories. I am going to miss my sweet friend. I know she is no longer in pain but that doesn't ease the fact of how much she will be missed. Love you always and forever your dear friend Wanda McMaster 💔😭
