

Terry John Blevins

January 15, 2016

T.J. Blevins

The world lost Terry John “T.J.” Blevins on Friday, January 15th, 2016. I say “world” because the pain from his death was felt across the globe. From Germany to South Korea to California through Iowa and down into Florida, tears were shed for this beautiful soul.

T.J. was brilliant, hilarious, sweet, caring and could often drive you crazy. He was an incredible musician and about as athletic as styrofoam. Most of all, he was loved. He was loved more in twenty-two years than most people are in a century. That love will continue for many more generations.

He was preceded in death on his mother’s side by his great grandparents, John and Elsie Clark, and on his father’s side by his grandfather, James Giddens.

Surviving family members include his father Terry Ray Blevins; mother and stepfather, Jennifer and Dean Litsch; maternal grandparents Tommy and Angela Lane; maternal grandfather Jodie Foster; paternal grandmother Nancy Giddens; aunts Deborah Cha Blevins and Andrea Lane; uncles Don Callicutt and Thomas Lane.

While T.J. may have not had the traditional religious beliefs that many of us do, he was spiritual. I believe that he is somewhere good. Wherever he is, I believe the music is amazing and that he is happy. I also believe that he is finally at peace.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to hungryformusic.org, which honors T.J.'s passion for music.

Arrangements by Ryan Funeral Home of Trenton, GA.

Tribute Wall

“ Terry John Blevins

October 09, 2023 at 03:12 AM

“ Happy Birthday, Oatfry. I love you

Thomas Lane - August 30, 2020 at 02:46 PM

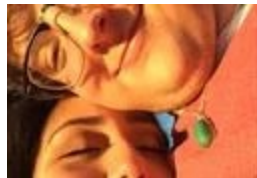

“ Ma-Ma lit a candle in memory of Terry John Blevins

Ma-Ma - January 15, 2020 at 09:22 PM

“ I have never met another human being with so much love in his heart. From our first date. I knew this boy was a charmer and would do anything for another person. He made me feel loved and cared for and happy, as he did with every single person he met. His way with words and ability to incorporate his own tunes and melodies to them blew me away. I learned something new from Terry every single day. I pray your family heals and finds the comfort they need to make it through. I love you all very very much. <3

Isabel - February 10, 2016 at 01:25 PM

DG

“ I remember his engaging smile, chess games and quiet presence at our fun gatherings in Germany. You are imprinted on our hearts forever. Rest in peace dear one. Rest easy knowing the beautiful music you created will forever resonate through time and space. Until we meet again.

Donna Gemba - February 07, 2016 at 06:03 AM

“ I remember the first time I went to his house lol he was in boxer shorts and no shirt, playing the guitar. I kept asking him to put pants on but he just kept on about his business and I loved that about him:) he was always determined to live life his way and if u didn't like it then go the other way...it's still unreal to me. I just want anyone to know who didn't know him, they were missing out on someone amazing and talents to no end.

Whitney Thomas - February 03, 2016 at 03:39 PM

AU

“ He always pushed me to be better. Let me drive his car home after I got my liscense. He was my brother and my best friend. Amazing musician with many talents. A good person with a heart of pure gold. That's how he will be remembered.

R.I.Pieces Terry~<3

Austin - February 02, 2016 at 02:02 PM

AM

“ My deepest prayers and condolences to you, my dear friend Terry Ray and your family. I am so sorry for loss of your beloved son, T.J. I Pray through time, peace and comfort surrounds you, and you can reflect on the joy you both shared. God bless you and know you are always in our Prayers. Big Hugs xoxo

Angela Morton - February 02, 2016 at 12:11 PM