“ To the Keesler family
As I reflect back on my years of knowing Terry the things that stand out to me the most was how proud he was of his family. Terry worked for me a number of years and I always appreciated his pride in his work and his loyalty to Valley. Although I have retired now and haven't talked with Terry for some time, I know that he shall be missed by the folks at Valley. Terry will certainly be missed by all who knew him.
May our Lord and Father give you comfort and peace as you go forward and may today bring glory and honor to our Savior Jesus Christ.
