

Thirstain Bradley Daniels

July 30, 1996 - December 10, 2025

Thirstain Daniels, 29, of Rising Fawn, GA, passed away on Wednesday, December 10, 2025 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Thirstain was a 2014 graduate of Dade County High School and was known for his musical talents as a singer & songwriter and for his hand-crafted leather goods. He was a self-employed construction contractor and loved the adventures of being outdoors. Thirstain was preceded in death by his grandparents, Terry & Kimberly Daniels, and his aunts, Mandy Lynn Daniels & Maranda Daniels.

Those left to cherish his memory are his mom, Michelle Daniels, siblings, Nicholas Daniels & Curestain Burse, and uncle, Michael (Cynthia) Daniels; many cousins and a host of friends also survive.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, December 19th at 1:00 p.m. in the funeral home chapel with Pastor Rory Blevins officiating. Thirstain will be laid to rest at Mt. Olive Cemetery, Lookout Mountain, GA. Online condolences may be shared at ryanfuneralhome.net.

The family will receive friends on Friday from 11:00 a.m. until the service hour at Ryan Funeral Home & Crematory, Trenton, GA.

“ My favorite memory of Thirstain was always sitting down at the family table playing monopoly and him being super competitive against us cousins, it was the the staying up super late til 2am bonding and laughing that brought us together to continue playing to the point where our grandmother would have to make us all go to sleep because we never wanted to leave that moment. I love you deeply and will forever miss you.- Jasmin
