

Tony Lindsey Reeves

July 20, 1965 - March 26, 2026

Tony Lindsey Reeves, 60, of Trenton, GA, passed away quietly at his home on Thursday, March 26, 2026. He was in the presence of the cats that he lovingly adopted and cared for over the past few years.

Tony was a quiet man with quite a talent for metal work, woodwork, and electrical work. On occasion he took up a little plumbing here and there. He really enjoyed woodworking and would do special items from time to time. Tony enjoyed working on cars, especially body work and restoration. He also enjoyed the outdoors and often found peaceful places to hike and be surrounded by nature. He had a vast collection of die-cast model cars, along with movies of all kinds, and he enjoyed a good action thriller. Tony was preceded in death by his father, William L. Reeves and his mother, Corene S. Reeves.

Survivors include his brother and sister-in-law, Billy (Lenny) & Sherry Reeves; niece, Lynette (Michael) Kenimer; nephew, Billy (Darby) Reeves; great-niece and great-nephew, Kaitlynn Kenimer & Dutch Reeves, all of Trenton, GA.

“ Tony and I reconnected through Facebook last year. Growing up I remember him being at all of the family reunions we had on the Shrader side of the family. He was always very quiet and hardly talked but you could get him in conversation if you asked about his mom or his car. He loved cars and I was always fascinated by the beautiful car he had. Mind you im not a car person so I cant tell you some what kind it was but it was beautiful and he was so proud to show it off. We decided to meet up when I came up in July 2025 and we took a photo. We talked alot about the old days and fishing. We were hoping to go fishing this summer. We talked about family and he asked about my mom so when I went back up in November mom came with me and we met up with Tony. Again he was very quiet and talked about retiring and talked alot about family. We were supposed to meet up when I came back at the end of December but he told me he was sick and to let him know when I was coming back. I was back up in March but he never responded to my messages. I was so sad to hear the news of his passing. We had just reconnected. He was a kind soul who felt misunderstood and I think thats why we connected. He loved his cats. But I know with a doubt he is having an amazing reunion with his Mom he loved her so much and talked to me alot about her and his dad. Lesson learned dont wait so long to reach out to your loved ones. We never know when our time is up. Tony you will be missed buddy. Love,
Rachael
