“ I have been so saddened and shocked of the passing of Ginger. Growing up, I have so many sweet memories of her. She was a precious person and a wonderful Christian who very much loved her family and friends. Ginger was kind and true. Now her dad has passed and gone to be with his Lord just as Ginger and they are together with Mrs. Wilkie. How wonderful for them! What great examples of Christ they were for us to follow.
Still praying for all of you.

“ Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. (Jeremiah 1:5) God knew what was going to happen to us before we we're even born. In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. (1 Thessalonians 5:18) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you Amen. (1 Thessalonians 5:28) So stay strong my brother steve and may the Lord strength you and your family through your time of needs. I Love you my brother. But God Love you more.

“ So very sorry to learn of Ginger's death. Gordon and I had planned on attending the funeral, but Gordon came down with a terrible virus. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Edward, we plan on driving up to see you and Jo before too long. Will call you first. It is a very sad day. Becky, hope we can keep in touch.

“ Jim and I want to express how sorry we are that Ginger is gone. It was such a shock to learn the suddenness of this. We never know when death is going to finds us. I remember when Ginger came to live with us in Rome for a little while after she got out of school. We had a lot of fun. Even though we did not see each other, I did think about her often. May God bless her family and grant comfort to them all.

Condolences,

Jim and Cindy Young(Melba's oldest daughter, Elmer and Ila's granddaughter.)
