

Wallace Lamar Moore, Sr.

August 21, 1932 - June 23, 2016

Wallace Lamar Moore, Sr., of Trenton, Georgia, passed away on Thursday, June 23, 2016.

He was born on August 21, 1932, in the New Salem community on Lookout Mountain, to Roy William and Cecil Hannah Moore.

Lamar grew up in New Salem United Methodist Church, then as an adult, became a member of Trenton United Methodist Church. He served faithfully at TUMC in many capacities, including youth leader, Sunday School teacher, administrative board member, and annual conference delegate. A role that brought him much joy was the privilege of being involved in the building of the church gymnasium, and the new sanctuary, fellowship hall, and classroom building.

He was also active in the community in Jaycees, Lions Club, and city council.

Lamar attended Dade County Schools before transferring to Berry Academy, where he graduated from high school in 1950. He graduated from Berry College in 1954. While at Berry Schools, he served in several leadership roles, and participated in Debate Club, and track and field. He enlisted in the U. S. Army following college. After training in the US, he spent the remainder of his four years in Munich, Germany, where he served in

Army intelligence, and was a member of the 11th Airborne division.

He worked as a contractor and construction manager for many years, building a number of homes and commercial buildings in Dade County and the Chattanooga area. Some of the most memorable include the 1970s renovation of the Chattanooga Choo-Choo, and the construction of Stonedge Condominiums in Lookout Mountain, Tennessee. He later worked as a long-haul truck driver before retiring.

Lamar was preceded in death by his wife of 59 years, Roselyn Dyer Moore; his parents; brothers Harry "Bud" and Donald "Dude" Moore; son-in-law Michael Kinney; sisters- and brothers-in-law Elene and Jim Hale, and Aubrey "Bo" and Ellen Dyer; and niece Cindy Dyer.

He is survived by children Marty and Michael Gronek, Trenton; Melissa Kinney, Cleveland, TN; and Wally and Natalie Moore, Jefferson, GA; grandchildren Katie (Andy) Williams, Laura Gronek, Mary (Stephen) Graham, and Colleen Gronek; Aaron, Hannah, and Will Kinney; and Megan, Emily, and Lily Moore; great-grandson Barrett Williams; sisters-in-law Bobbie Moore and Ellen Marie Moore; and seven nieces and nephews.

Memorial gifts may be made to Trenton United Methodist Church, P. O. Box 6, Trenton, GA 30752.

Here I am again, acknowledging years-old messages I missed. Y'all were indeed good neighbors and friends. And my family got to enjoy your home for forty years. Hope all is well with you. I now know how difficult it is to lose my parents. I told Abby a couple of years ago that I needed to apologize for not doing a better job when her parents died, because I didn't understand how hard it was. She said she had been the same way, and apologized to a friend for the same reason, after hers died. Oh well, such is life.

“ Rip best friend. Thank you for being so caring and compassionate. It was an honor to meet you and you family. It was an absolute privilege to be one of your caregivers. I will never forget you. Until we meet again.
Sincerely,
Your Jewel
