“ April,

May God surround you and your family with his peace and love. We had some great times together when we started the 9-1-1 Center in the basement of the Justice Building.

He was a fine man and a dedicated servant to many. So sorry for your loss.

In His Love,

Chuck Hall

“ Wayne and I were good friends from childhood. We played baseball together. His reassuring glance was what I needed to go forward and accept Christ in April, 1976.
He is a friend who always has your back. He loved to cut up in school and our group of friends had a lot of good, clean fun.
Connie Wayne, you are more alive in Heaven than we are now. See you soon brother.

“ I remember Wayne, hanging out with our son, Ron, giggling boys laughing and talking about shared interests, pop culture at the time, Van Halen, middle school, then high school, classes they shared, and people they both knew. He was a positive, bright presence, and we always enjoyed seeing him. So sorry to lose him.
