“ My sincere condolences Wesley and Dee Ann and to all of Wesley Sr family for losing a friend is incredibly difficult, especially after a challenging illness like Alzheimer's. We shared many memories together in our time together he was one of my best friends, Wesley was unique and special with an infectious smile and unwavering optimism and kind spirit touched everyone he made people feel valued and he had a sense of humor and always full of jokes he had heard. Wesley your life was a blessing your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. The memories shared will bring comfort in our time of sorrow
Fly high my friend
You are healed
Much love and respect
