“ My dear first cousin, lifelong friend and confidant. He was always there when I needed an understanding friend to console me over the loss of a family member. He's the last of "The Jenkins Boys". The three of them served as pall bearers for both of my parents, my brother-in-law and countless other family members. Their dad, George E. Jenkins was always available to dig another grave at the Deer Head Cove Cemetery. He knew about all of the people who were laid to rest there. We were all so fortunate to have had him in our lives. My deepest sympathy goes to Elaine, his wonderful wife, their two fine children and those 4 grandchildren of whom he was so very proud. Sincerely, Carolyn Phillips Ellis

“ I worked with Ken during all his years at U.S. Pipe and Foundry. He was more than a co-worker...he was a trusted and loyal friend that we will truly miss. Heaven has gained an angel. Rest in peace my friend.
