

William Craig Taylor

October 7, 1976 - November 12, 2024

William Craig Taylor, 48, of Trenton, Georgia, passed away on Tuesday, November 12th, 2024.

Craig was a beloved member of the Trenton Methodist Church and a devoted member of the local community. He began his entrepreneurial journey at the young age of 14, starting his own business, a path that ultimately led him to own and operate T & T Golf Carts, serving the Trenton and Chattanooga areas alongside his wife, Jennifer.

An avid golfer and passionate collector of sports memorabilia, Craig was a lifelong fan of the Georgia Bulldogs and the Atlanta Braves. His enthusiasm for sports was rivaled only by his love for family and friends. Craig was known for his generosity and hospitality, often opening his home and his heart to anyone in need. His culinary expertise was well-known, and he firmly believed that “the more, the merrier!”

Craig will be remembered as being a wonderful husband and the best Dad. His kind heart, sharp wit, and unwavering support of his loved ones made a lasting impact on everyone he met.

He was preceded in death by his father, William Tony Taylor, and his sisters, Jill Taylor and Lori Taylor.

Craig is survived by his mom, Darlene Taylor; his loving wife of 17 years, Jennifer Taylor; their children, Hazel Grace Taylor and William Henry Taylor; cousin Tommy Hedden; as well as several nieces, nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 16th 12:00 p.m. at the Trenton Methodist Church. Services will be officiated by Rev. Reece Fauscett & Rev. Ed Salter. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until the service hour at Trenton Methodist Church.

“ Craig was among the pioneering businessmen who invested in us personally as he mentored our team during the launch of our first small business in Dade County. His mentorship was not about grandiose words or seeking recognition, but rather it stemmed from his genuine character of generosity and a sincere desire to see us thrive, evidenced by his commitment to being a devoted customer, bringing his entire family along, including his parents, and his enthusiastic participation in our events. Our hearts are with his beloved family in prayer now and in the many months to come. His children brighten our day when they come bursting through our doors... may God provide them comfort in their time of mourning and grief as only He can.

“ Craig made sure that everything from Riverbend to the Nationwide PGA golf tournament had everything we needed. He was the most giving person and put his personal touch and fun personality on everything he did. I'm so heartbroken for the family and so many friends. Craig will be missed beyond measure.

“ I've known Craig since he was 14 years old. He was a good friend who'd help anyone. He was a mainstay at my yearly Superbowl party for a time. The sadness is multiplied by the fact he had two young children.

I'll be praying for for the family . god bless

“ The obituary said it all. Craigs impact on our small community will be long remembered. His kind heart, sweet spirit and willingness to help with anything was a given but I'll always remember him most for stepping up like he did to look out and care for Darlene after Tony passed. Prayers to his previous family
